The just shall live by faith Romans 1:17

Words and Music by Harry Reinders.

There is no need of look- ing back for things that might have been, For
(2) is no need to walk by sight and stum- ble all the way, For
(3) is no need to watch and wait for signs from Heav'n a- bove, For life grows sweet- er ev'- ry day when we walk with the King. There when by faith we trust in God He'll guide us ev' - ry day. There this by faith that we have life through Jes- us and His love. There is no need to wor- ry or fret for God is on the throne, And is no need to be a- afraid with God we' re not a- lone, And is no need to toil in fear, for God cares for his own, And

[1, 2, 3] He will lead us through this land to our e- ter- nal home. By
